

Renewable Energy Streamlining Program (RESP) Environmental Impact Report

Copies of the Renewable Energy Streamlining Program Environmental Impact Report (Draft and Final Versions) are on file with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

The public can access a copy of the Renewable Energy Streamlining Program Environmental Impact Report at the Clerk's office or through the Department of Planning and Building website:

www.sloplanning.org

Members of the Board of Supervisors – These reports were provided to the Board of Supervisors under separate cover. Please bring your copies of the reports to the hearing.